

For Immediate Release

OutsourceWorld Announces New Sponsors And Upgraded Space

BOCA RATON, FL APRIL 20, 2006-- As we get closer to our London conference & exhibition, OutsourceWorld is pleased to announce exciting new developments. Due to the swell in companies interested in exhibiting and attending, we have upgraded our exhibit space at the Business Design Centre to 2,000 square meters and reserved additional conference and meeting rooms. For more details and virtual tours of the venue visit: www.businessdesigncentre.co.uk.

Unisys (Platinum Sponsor), Simmons & Simmons (Gold Sponsor), IT United (Gold Sponsor) and country pavilions from India, China, Malta & Romania are already committed to OutsourceWorld-London. In addition, partnerships with Fortune Magazine, Financial Times, Euromoney Magazine, Silicon.com, Techworld.com, Management Today, and WITSA (World Information Technology & Services Alliance) have been forged to assist in showcasing OutsourceWorld.

For 2006, the OutsourceWorld conference will address security (data, physical & geopolitical), BPO, IT, KPO and operational issues that face small and medium sized enterprises. Delegates will engage with outsourcing practitioners, global service providers and thought leaders over a captivating two day period. No business owner or senior executive should miss this opportunity to begin, refine or build upon their sourcing model.

For more information please contact Paul Dudley, pdudley@outsource-world.com